BROKEN CISTERNS (Jeremiah 2:11-13) I. Materialism. A.
Our world is consumed with things. 1. The latest technology has to be ours. 2. The biggest tv set has to be in our homes.
3. If it buzzes, notifies, beeps or vibrates we have to have it.
B. I came across a new word in studying for this sermon: 1. It is affluenza. 2.

Jeremiah used the illustration of broken cisterns to point up the extreme foolishness of God's people, Israel. This illustration was not just thought up by Jeremiah as "sermon filler." The Lord Himself originated and used this illustration in the message that He communicated to His people through His prophet, Jeremiah (vs 1-2 and 4-5).

Broken Cisterns. Jer 2:11-13 Has a nation changed its gods, which are not gods? But My people have changed their Glory for what does not profit. 12 Be astonished, O heavens, at this, and be horribly afraid; be very desolate," (dried up) says the LORD.

A broken cistern is worthless. If you were carefully listening when I read the Jeremiah passage, the phrase "worthless idols" was used 3 times. Why would they dig their own cisterns, worthless ones, when they had access to a spring of living water? We are not like that.

Cisterns were especially important in Israel during Jeremiah's day. Archaeologists have uncovered thousands of them. The land was arid and the rains were infrequent. The people in those days would dig their cisterns, line them with bricks and plaster them to hold the water, but they would often break and were not able to hold the water.

Broken cisterns was God's way of saying that the people had turned from Him—the fountain of living waters—to worthless sources for their sustenance. The Broken Cistern Syndrome is marked by disappointment: the man-hewn basins soon reveal their emptiness. There is no comforting coolness, no refreshing, no restoration.
