"This is a program that focuses on all 3 modes of communication (interpersonal, persentational, interpretive) and was designed with the Common Core State Standards (CCSS) in mind."--Amazon/Publisher.

Breakthrough French 3 is part of the highly acclaimed Breakthrough Language Series and an extensively revised new edition of the best-selling Breakthrough Further French. It is designed for learners of French with a reasonable knowledge of the language (perhaps for two to three years of study whether in classes or less formally). It aims to extend the learner's vocabulary over a wide range of topics and to improve conversational and reading skills. Authentic recordings and radio excerpts teach the language as it is spoken by the French. These are backed up by carefully paced studio recordings and exercises. Many illustrations complement the user-friendly page layout. Ideal for self-study Breakthrough is also used widely in further, adult and higher education.

Developed by I Corps Foreign Language Training Center Fort Lewis, WA For the Special Operations Forces Language Office United States Special Operations Command LANGUAGE TRAINING The ability to speak a foreign language is a core unconventional warfare skill and is being incorporated throughout all phases of the qualification course. The students will receive their language assignment after the selection phase where they will receive a language starter kit that allows them to begin language training while waiting to return to Fort Bragg for Phase II. The 3rd Bn, 1st SWTG (A) is responsible for all language training at the USAJFKSWCS. The Special Operations Language Training (SOLT) is primarily a performance-oriented language course. Students are trained in one of ten core languages with enduring regional application and must show proficiency in speaking, listening and reading. A student receives language training throughout the Pipeline. In Phase IV, students attend an 8 or 14 week language blitz depending upon the language they are slotted in. The general purpose of the course is to provide each student with the ability to communicate in a foreign language. For successful completion of the course, the student must achieve at least a 1/1/1 or higher on the Defense Language Proficiency Test in two of the three graded areas; speaking, listening and reading.
